

Harrisburg University OnTheHub

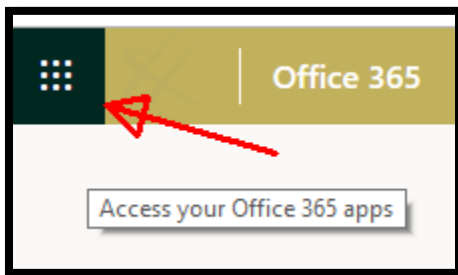

We are pleased to announce that Harrisburg University is now a participant of OnTheHub.

OnTheHub is dedicated to removing the barriers to education by providing students and faculty with free and discounted software from the world's leading publishers. By offering products at greatly reduced prices, we're helping to equip students with the tools they need to succeed.

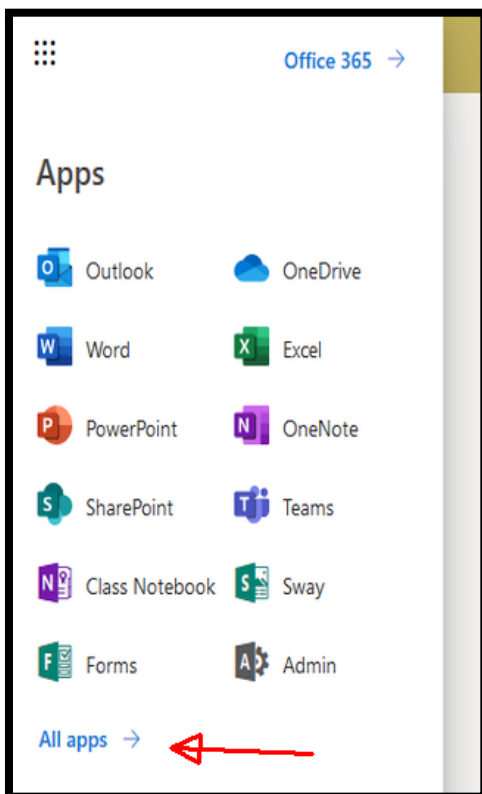

OnTheHub partnered with major publishers including Microsoft, Adobe, IBM, Symantec, and many more to offer exclusive discounts for schools around the world. With OnTheHub, students and educators save up to 90% on academic software, and can even get products for free!

To access the OnTheHub please follow the below instructions.

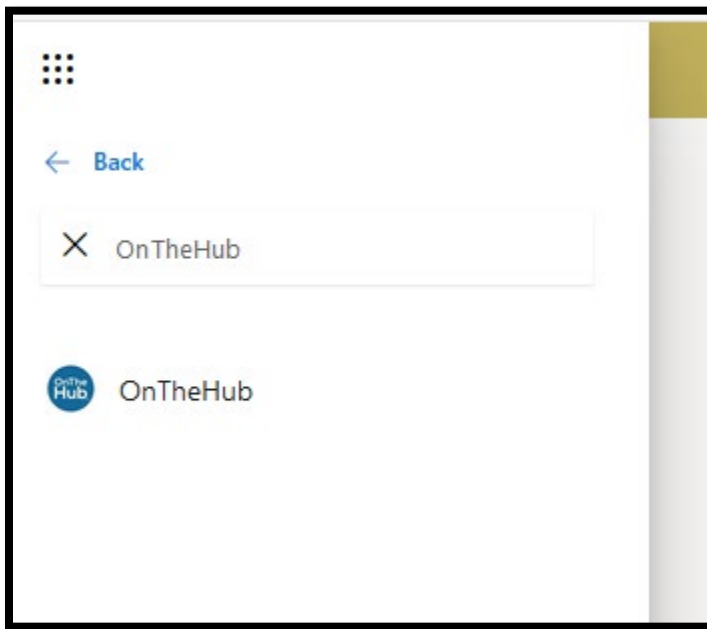

1. Login to <https://www.office.com/> using your Harrisburg University credentials.
2. Click the all apps icon located at the top left of the page.

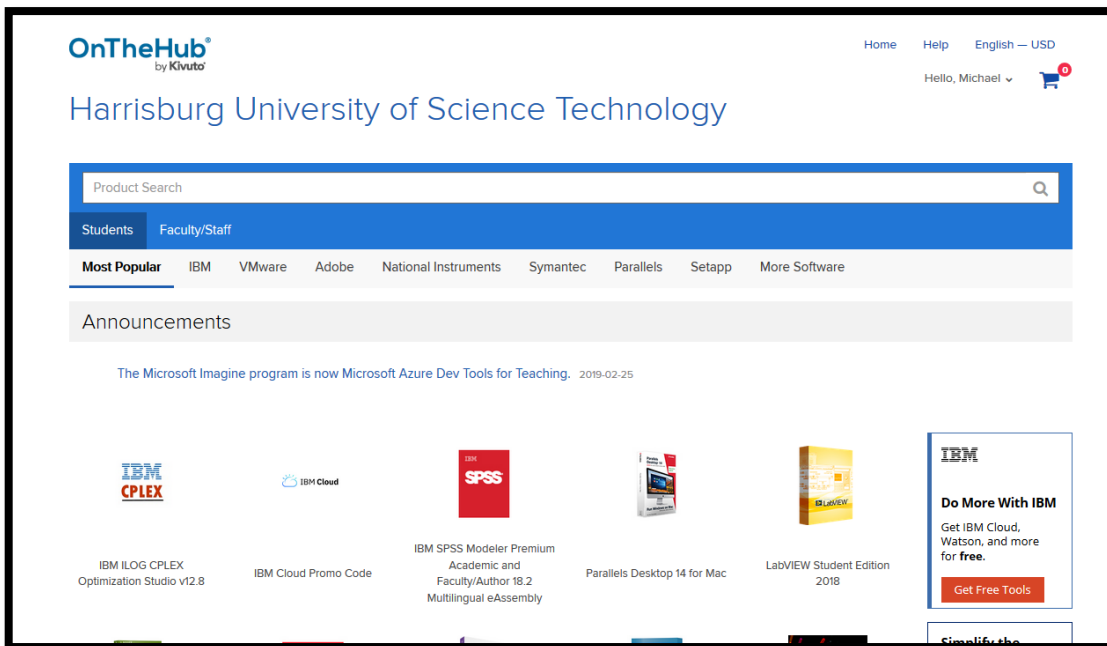

3. Select All apps.

4. Type OnTheHub in the search bar and then launch the application.

5. You will be redirected to the Harrisburg University OnTheHub homepage.
